To get answers to questions about one or more journals:

1. First, select the questions you want answered.
2. Then, select the journal(s) you want the questions to relate to.
3. To get a report containing the answers, click the 'Submit' button (tab-delimited report for uploading to a spreadsheet is also available).

Results:

If you select more than one journal, the results will come to you in email.
To see a report for just one journal, click '[answers to all questions]' next to its name below and you will see the answers in your browser. You may also view a sample report.

To get answers to questions not listed below, we have made it easy to send email to multiple publishers.

1. Select the questions you want answered:
